TRAVEL TIPS

WHEN TO GO

Canada's climate varies tremendously, with warm days in summer and sub-zero temperatures in winter. The climate and daylight hours can be very different in the south compared to the north.

Summer (June to August) brings long, warm, sunny days to most regions. This is the best time to see grizzly and black bears as well as whales. Experience 16 to 22 hours of daylight, and midnight sun in the northern regions.

Autumn (September to November) sees temperatures drop and foliage turn all shades of yellow, orange and red. October to November is the best time to see Polar bears and you may still see grizzly and black bears, as well as whales through to October. Snow begins to fall from October/November.

Winter (December to February) brings cold weather with temperatures dropping below zero. Cities and towns are geared to challenge the cold surroundings with many having covered walkways and indoor malls to protect from the elements. Snow falls most of winter in many regions. The Northern Lights are best viewed in winter.

Spring (March to May) sees days getting longer and temperatures slowly rising. Snow starts to melt away in March/April and wildflowers begin to bloom. The whale and bear watching season generally begins in May. The Northern Lights may be seen through to March in some parts.

ELECTRICITY

110V 60Hz. An adaptor is required.

VISAS & PASSPORTS

All travellers to Canada must carry a passport valid for at least six months beyond the date of departure from Australia and obtain the Electronic Travel Authorisation (eTA) prior to travel, see www.travel.gc.ca for more details. As visa information can change at any time, we recommend you seek advice regarding passports, visas, and other travel requirements for the countries you intend visiting from the Australian Government at smartraveller.gov.au.

TIME

There are six main time zones in Canada. Pacific Daylight Time (PDT - Vancouver) is 17 hours behind Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST), Mountain Daylight Time (MDT - Edmonton) is 16 hours behind AEST, Central Daylight Time (CDT - Winnipeg) is 15 hours behind AEST, Eastern Daylight Time (EDT - Toronto) is 14 hours behind AEST, Atlantic Daylight Time (ADT - Halifax) is 13 hours behind AEST and Newfoundland (St John's) is 12 1/2 hours behind AEST. Daylight Saving Time is observed from March to November when clocks are turned forward by one hour.

CURRENCY

Canadian Dollar (CAD)

TIPPING

Tipping is expected in restaurants, bars and taxis. As a guide expect to pay 15% to 20% of the bill, CAD1 per bag for hotel porters and 10% of the tour price for tour guides.

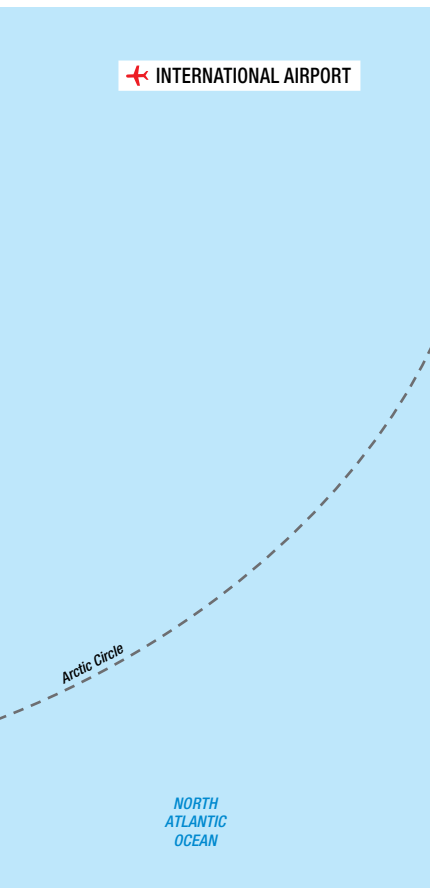

LANGUAGE

EXPERIENCES YOU'LL LOVE

The best part of any journey is the experiences you have along the way, leaving you with memories to relive long after the holiday is over.

Canada has countless amazing things to see and do. Here are some of our favourites to inspire your wanderlust.

Churchill

BEAR VIEWING

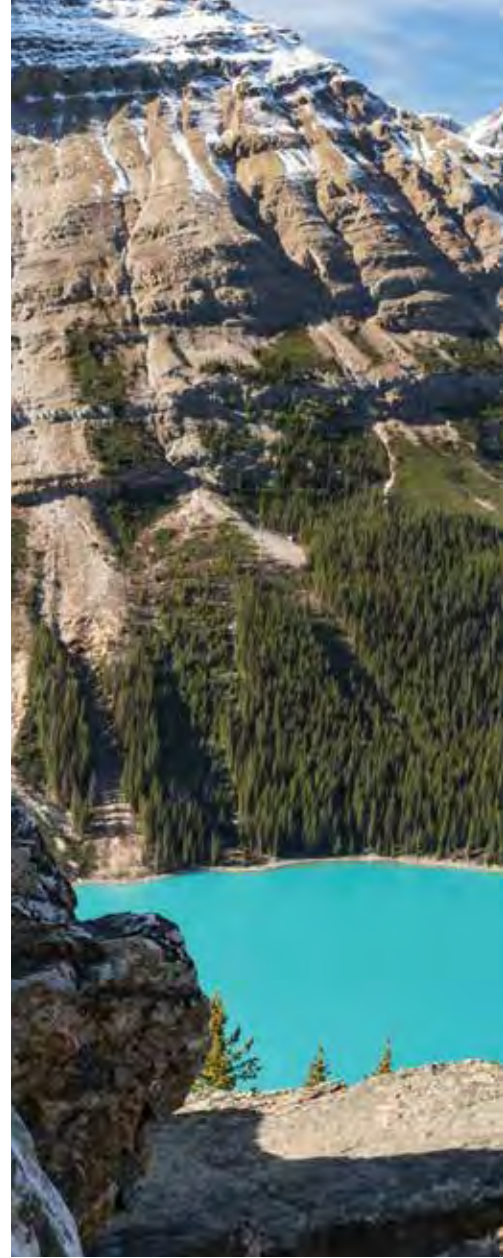

Seeing these powerful animals in the wild is an experience you'll never forget. Grizzly bears can be found throughout the Canada wilderness or fishing for salmon in rivers around Knight Inlet. Black bears roam the forests of both the Atlantic and Pacific coastlines, and the spectacular Polar bear can be spotted around Churchill in Manitoba and out on the tundra of Arctic Canada. You're bound to see other wildlife on your bear watching adventures, so keep an eye out for elk, moose, caribou and mountain goats. Wildlife spotting doesn't get much wilder than this!

Columbia Icefield, Jasper National Park

ICEFIELDS PARKWAY

Stretching 232 kilometres through the heart of the Canadian Rockies, the Icefields Parkway offers the road trip of a lifetime. This spectacular drive between Jasper and Lake Louise, winds its way through Jasper and Banff National Parks and reveals natural attractions at every turn. Get a photo at world-famous Moraine Lake, see the bright turquoise colour of Peyto Lake, and view the powerful Athabasca and Sunwapta Falls. Take an Ice Explorer ride out onto the Columbia Icefield, step on this impressive ice mass, and dare to walk the glass-floored Skywalk.

Lake Louise

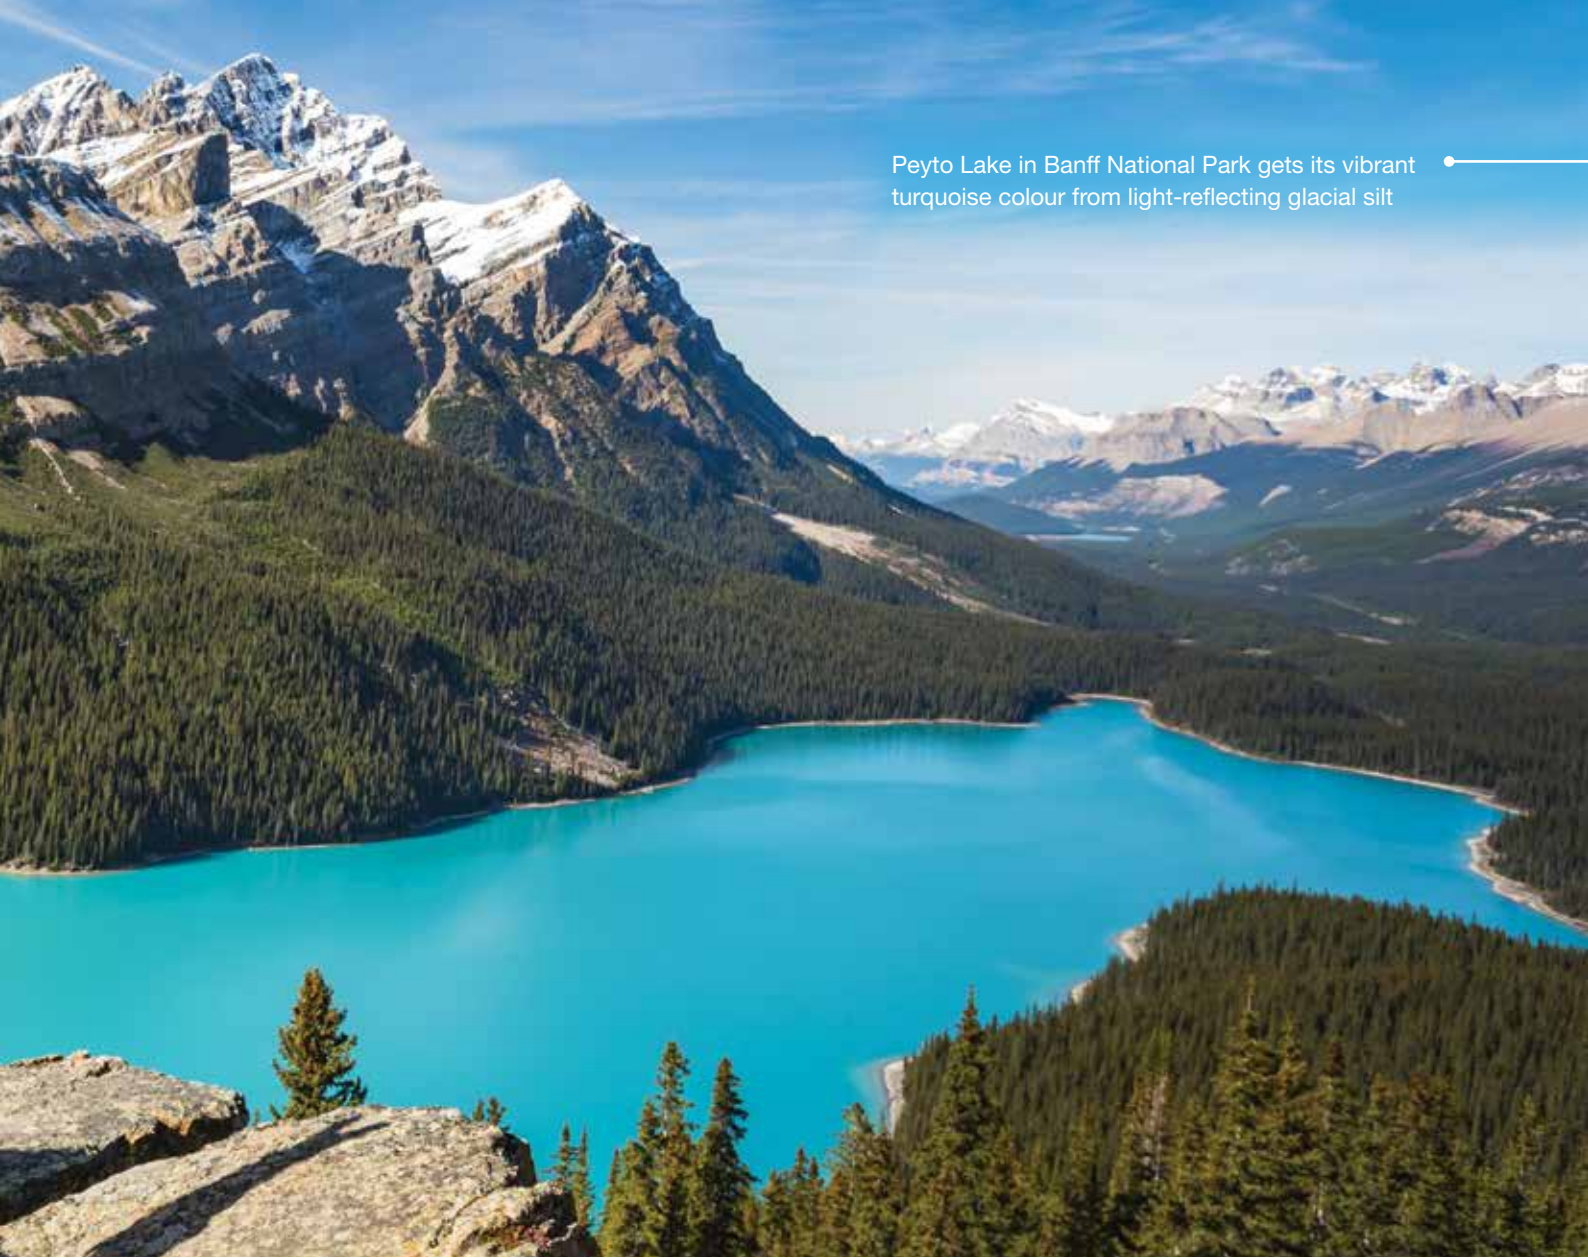

OUTDOOR ADVENTURE

With its craggy peaks, iridescent lakes and twisting and turning trails, Canada is a haven for outdoor adventure. Lace up the boots and hike to Lake Agnes Tea House for views of Lake Louise or take to the trails in Whistler and Sun Peaks for meadows of wildflowers. Pedal your way along cityside pathways such as The Seawall in Vancouver or the Rideau Canal in Ottawa, or pick up the pace at Whistler Mountain Bike Park. On the water, kayak on Maligne Lake in Alberta or raft down the rushing waters of the Athabasca River. Try ziplining, bungee jumping and parasailing – there's no shortage of adventure here!

Northern Lights, Yellowknife

Peyto Lake in Banff National Park gets its vibrant turquoise colour from light-reflecting glacial silt

NATURAL WONDERS

Mother nature has blessed Canada with some of the greatest spectacles. See the immense power of Niagara Falls from above or below. Discover one of the biggest finds of dinosaur fossils at Dinosaur Provincial Park in Alberta. Check out the world's highest tides in New Brunswick, where you can kayak at high tide and walk on the ocean floor at low tide. An experience not to be missed is seeing the beautiful Northern Lights as they light up the night sky. Chase them in the Yukon, the Northwest Territories and Manitoba where viewing is best from February to March.

WHALE WATCHING

Canada's coastline offers some of the best places in the world to view the incredible whale. Over 30 species reside in, or travel along, the waters on both the east and west coasts. Humpback, minke, orca and blue whales can be found in the Pacific waters in the west, or the Atlantic Ocean or St. Lawrence River in the east. The playful and gentle beluga whale can be seen at the estuary of the Churchill River near Hudson Bay in Manitoba. Amazing photo opportunities can be had from selected shorelines, or head out onto the water with an eco-friendly kayak or boat tour.

BUSTLING CITIES & CHARMING TOWNS

From big cities to enchanting towns and remote villages, these unique communities are waiting to be explored. Choose a cosmopolitan city break with no shortage of attractions in Vancouver or Toronto. Discover British Columbia's capital, Victoria. Lose yourself in the French-influenced cities of Montréal and Québec City. Enjoy the western hospitality of Calgary or take a slower pace in the pretty little towns and maritime villages of Atlantic Canada.
